

Katerina and Zoran are living separately

1. They are spending their money without a plan.
2. They meet , fall in love and get married.
3. But in their marital union problems start about the way they spend the money.
4. After many conversations Katerina and Zoran success to compromise about the money managment in their common life and they continue to have calm, peaceful and financial stable common life.