

Katerina and Zoran are living separately

1. They are spending their money without a plan.
2. They meet, fall in love and get married.
3. But in their marital union problems start about the way they spend the money.
4. They fail to agree because they cannot find a compromise. They divorce and each continue as before.